

ATTENTION! Women with Non-Traditional Career Choices

AAUW Mini-Grant for Women in Non-Traditional Careers

Applications are available on the Battle Creek Community Foundation's website (www.bccfoundation.org/specialscholarships) and can be mailed to:

AAUW
P.O. Box 1011
Battle Creek, MI 49016
Attention Mini Grant Committee

For more questions please contact BCCF at 269-962-2181. Ask for scholarship department.

This fund was established to support women entering the workforce in non-traditional occupations by providing material and certification funding.

Non-traditional occupations are defined as those where women make up less than 50% of the workforce such as automotive mechanic, technician, welder, electrician, etc.

- Eligibility
 - High School Senior
 - Adult Women
 - Resident of or taking training in Calhoun Intermediate School District
- Types of educational support available
 - Books, Tools, Supplies
- Fees for Licensing, testing, etc.

Grant can cover up to 75% of the required monies

Apply at least 30 days in advance of date funds are needed.